

Scholarship information

National Scholarships

Fast web- is a website that has a list of many national, college specific and Florida scholarships. Students will fill out a portfolio and will then give them scholarships specific to their need.

www.fastweb.com

American Legion: general, Eagle Scout and Patriotism in Art

<http://floridalegion.org/>

Eden Institute for students going into special education
(there is no web site available)

Blanco Foundation for students interested in nursing or education

<http://theblancofoundation.org/>

Gates Millennium Scholars program for a students of African American, American Indian, Asian or Hispanic 3.3 GPA and Pell grant eligible

<http://www.gmsp.org/>

Give Kids a Chance- is for students on free and reduced lunch

<http://www.gkac.org/>

National Commission for Cooperative learning – student attending

Drexel University, Rochester Inst of Technology,
Johnson and Wales University, University of Cincinnati,
Kettering University, University of Toledo, Pace
University, Wentworth Ins. Of Technology

<http://www.co-op.edu/scholarships.htm>

Local scholarships

The Democratic Women's Club of Lee County

<http://dwc-lee.com/>

Optimist Club International Essay Contest

<http://www.optimist.org/>

Florida PEO Scholarship- available to a young lady 3.0 GPA and other criteria
(no web site available)

Lee County Community foundation, has about 36 different scholarships available

<http://www.floridacommunity.com/scholarships/>

College Scholarships

Students should apply to college as soon as possible as many colleges give out merit based scholarships from their admissions department.

There are also need based scholarships available from colleges.

Bright Futures scholarship- this is a scholarship for Florida students who meet certain academic criteria. Estero High School students will enroll for the program during January of senior year. They can track their eligibility at the following website.

www.facts.org