

AICE Diploma: Junior Year VS Senior Year
	Earned Junior Year	Applied/Earned Senior Year
College applications	Be able to claim recipient of the AICE Diploma on college application. *Academic Award/Achievement	Not able to claim recipient of the AICE Diploma; even if you have enough AICE Diploma points in the required categories.	Rationale: the AICE Diploma is an "entry" during an AICE Exam Series, and it must be entered along with at least one exam to be considered for the AICE Diploma, and awarded the AICE Diploma.
Bright Futures Scholarship	Only need 100 hrs (peace of mind); recommend submitting to counselor by Dec. 1st to show up in BFS portal in Spring upload.	Will not know until scores released in August following graduation. *Plus submission of BFS volunteer/work hours	Note: Regardless of when AICE Diploma is earned, BFS does not confirm until after graduation (HS diploma is another requirement) BFS does not receive notification of AICE Diploma recipients until the Spring. *BFS not updated until after August 31st deadline.
Scholarship Application	Be able to claim AICE Diploma recipient as an Academic Award on your scholarship applications	Not able to claim recipient of the AICE Diploma on scholarship applications
Graduation Regalia	Will receive the AICE Stole.	Will receive the AICE Stole.	Note: Cambridge Curriculum Completer is a third designation for students that have completed the Cambridge Curriculum by the end of their senior year, but do not qualify to be entered for AICE Diploma senior year. *Cambridge Curriculum Completer will receive AICE Stole.
Graduation Program	"AICE Diploma Recipient " designation on the Class Graduation Program	"AICE Diploma Candidate " designation on the Class Graudation Program.	Rationale: An AICE Diploma Recipient is awarded by Cambridge International. Until results from AICE exam series have been released and the student is considered an AICE Diploma "candidate". Since the June AICE exam results are not released until August, the graduate will be desingated as an AICE Diploma candidate if entered for the AICE Diploma senior year. *Cambridge Curriculum Completer designation on program for graduates completing the Cambridge Curriculum but ineligible for AICE Diplom entry senior year.
AICE Diploma Award Levels	Three levels of AICE Diploma Award levels: Distinction/Merit/Pass. Once AICE Diploma is awarded, point accumulation towards Diploma Certificate "AWARD LEVEL" stops accumulating. *Top 7 scores from Global, Group 1, Group 2, Group 3, plus 3 from any group used to calculate Award Level (using each course syllabus once).
Estero High School will pay for your AICE Diploma entry one time. Therefore, if you apply for the AICE Diploma entry your junior year and are not awarded the AICE Diploma junior year, you will be required to pay the AICE Diploma entry fee senior year. *AICE Diploma entry fee is currently $132 (June 2024 exam series)			